MARSHALL WILL PROBATED TODAY

Estate of Approximately $500,000 Left to Widow and Daughters.

ONE PUBLIC LEGACY.

Four Daughters are Named as Executrices and Qualify Today—$500 to Lee Camp.

Leaving his entire estate to his four daughters, with the exception of a legacy of $50,000 to his wife and three small bequests, the will of John A. Marshall, vice president of the Alexandria National Bank and one of the wealthiest men in Alexandria, was admitted to probate in the Circuit Court in vacation today. His daughters are named as executrices.

The will is dated November 12th, 1912, and was written by Mr. Marshall in his own handwriting, on a sheet of note paper. It was not drawn up by an attorney and is very short. There are no witnesses but this will not effect the validity of the will in any way.

The first bequest is that of his interest in the stock of shoes at 422 King street, which goes to his brother, Charles B. Marshall, who for many years has had active charge of the business of John A. Marshall and Brother.

The next is to his wife, Miss Maria Marshall, who is left $50,000. Then come two small bequests, one to Lee Camp of Confederate Vterans, of $500 and one to Mrs. V. Webster, of this city, $250. The residue of the estate is to go to his four daughters who are also named as executrices without security.

His diamond rings are left to his daughter, Mrs. Pease, and his watch and charm to S. N. Pease.

The will was presented in the Circuit Court this morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Marshall's daoghters, Mrs. Mary Armistead Pease, of Philadelphia, Mrs. India Barker Haggerty, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Inez Marshall Cook, of New York ,and Miss Margaret Ethel Marshall, of Alexandria, immediately qualified as executrices, giving their bond for $230,000, which is the amount of the personal estate.

The entire value of Mr. Marshall's property is estimated at $500,000. Of thiss um $230,000 is represented by his personal property. This consists of stocks, bonds, morgages and cash. Mr. Marshall was one of the largest individual and held large blocks of the bonds and hel dlarge blocks of the state bonds. His real estate holdings are estimated at $270,000. One half of this amount is in Alexandria, consisting of his home on Wolfe street, his store on King street and 29 other houses. HAVE PAID SIXTY PER CENT.

Defunct Buckingham Bank Makes Another Payment.

Howardsville, Va., May 8.—The defunct Buckingham Bank has just made another payment of 15 per cent on its indebtedness. This makes a total up to date of 60 per cent. It is rumored that the bank will certainly pay 15 per cent more in the near future. If the liability on the unpaid stock is enforced against the stockholders it is said the concern will pay 90 per cent. on the dollar. There is also the bond of the absconding cashier as a possible source of revenue. This bond was for $10,000, and if paid, the bank depositors would only lose the interest on their money.

The Russian third section, that part of the government secert service whose duty it is to guard the Czar and prevent theft of diplomatic secrets, will co-operate with the German imperial secert service.

Two men were killed and a third was probably fatally wounded in a continuous revolver battle near Vienna, Ga., yesterday Oscar Brow, a farmer, first engaged P. P. Snagster, a neighbor, in a duel, in which Snagster was killed. Sheriff Bennett, mounted pursued Blow, who shot the officer out of the saddle. The sheriff returned the fire while falling to the ground, killing Blow.

Carrying out an oft-repeated threat that he would end his life Elias Resenaur, 43 years old, and until a short while ago manager of a wholesale hat firm in Philadelphia, dragged his half-paralyzed body across a room in the Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, and leaped to his death from the fifth-story window yesterday morning. Despondency over an illness of more than a year was the reason given the hospital authorities by members of the family for the man's act.

Averring that he can never recover from the humiliation which has come to him, John H. Fort, of La Porte, Ind., yesterday began action against Mrs. Bowers Williams for $38,850 damages for alleged breach of promise. Fort declares Mrs. Williams pretended to fall desperately in love with him, and after he had spent $850 for presents for her she was married to another man. Mrs. Williams is said to be wealthy.

Advices from Avlona say that the situation there causes the greatest anxiety, as the army of Djavid Pasha, encamped a few miles from the town, is in a starving condition. The Greek army is encamped 3 miles from the town and ready to take the slightest pretext to atack the city, notwithstanding assurances by the Greek government that it does not intend to move against Avlona.

All fourth-class postmasterships, except those paying less than $180 a year, were thrown open to competitive examinations by an executive order issued yesterday by President Wilson. These positions are retained in the classified service, but about 50,000 incumbents who were 'covered" into the classified service by executive orders of previous administrations will have to meet all comers in competitive examinations in order to hold their positions with civil service protection. Postmaster general announces that it was the purpose of President Wilson and himself to extend the classified service to include presidential postmasters of the second and third class probably within a year.

The tenth gang murder in the month in Harlem's "Little Italy," was committed early yesterday, when an Italian, believed to be Antonio Scamorino, of Dayton, Ohio, was shot from a doorway as he was walking along East 106th street. Although Patrolman Ayres was on fixed post at the time at Third avenue—less than 100 meet from the scene of the shooting—the murderer easily escaped. When Ayres ran to the vestibule from which the shot had been fired there was no one in sight. Scamorino is believed to have been in this country but a short time. The motive for the murder is a mystery to the police.

The communist anarchist federation attempted to carry out its threatened demonstration as a protest King Alfonso's visit, in front of the Spanish embassy in Paris yesterday but large forces of police ruthlessly scatered the 300 anarchists and synicalists as soon as they began to shout "Long live Ferrer! Down with the assassin king!" Groups of manifestants then began to smash street lamps and tear down the decorations of the houses. The police had difficulty in quieting the disorders. Twenty persons were arrested.

WILSON BLOCKS REORGANIZATOIN

Stops Immediate Formation of Congresional Campaign Board.

AVERSE TO JOHNSON.

Executive Will Take Active Part in Reorganization of Committee For The Next Election.

Washington, May 8.— President Wilson again has stepped in as the head of his party, and at his direction there is to be no immediate reorganization of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, for the chairmanship of which Congressman Ben Johnson, of Kentucky, was slated.

All indications today are that not only will the President be the consulting chief in the reorganization of the congressional committee, but that he is opposed to Mr. Johnson as chairman.

Friends of the Kentuckian, who, incidentally is chairman of the House district committee, are understood to have become disheartened over the outlook.

The postponement of the reorganization of the campaign committee was announced by Congressman Lloyd, retiring chairman. Mr. Lloyd saw the President yesterday.

President Wilson's interference in the matter is believed to have been prompted first by his desire to perfect a continued working agreement between the congressional and the National Democratic committees; second, because of his opposition to Ben Johnson as chairman.

The President realizes that his administration will be on trial in 1914, especially since there is to be direct elections for a third of the Senate membership, and the White House will have a say in the running of the Congressional campaign.

INCREASE IN HYDROPHOBIA.

Public Warned by State Board of Health to be Careful About. Dogs.

Richmond, Va., May 8.—With nine case of rabies under treatment in the laboratory of the State Board of Health and with frequent reports of dogs suspected of the disease the State Board of Health anticipates a widespread prevalence of mad animals this summer, and has issued a special warning on the subject.

Since the Board of Health undertook the free treatment of persons who had been exposed to rabid animals and could not procure treatment at the regular Pasteur Institutes, this aspect of the State's public health work has grown rapidly, until some cases are under treatment practically all the time. hile some of the increase in cases treated by the state is attributed by the health officers to a general understanding that the State is doing this work, much of the increase in rabies is thought to be due to the public disregard of repeated warnings. Where no preacautions is taken it is pointed out, there will be a gradual increase in the number of rabid animals, and a consequent increase in the number of persons bitten.

"The mere fact that rabies can be prevented by treatment," the bulletin of the board states, "should not make the people of the state careless. At the very least, a bite from a rabid animal involves the expense of a trip to Richmond, and board during a three weeks' stay. All of this can be prevented by proper precautions. The all important things to watch for symptoms of sickness in the dogs, and to tie them up at the very first evidence of disease. Generally a dog suffering from hydrophobia will show signs of sickness before the acute stages of the disease develops, and if he is then carefully tied where he cannot escape, he will not be dangerous. Unless the people are more careful we may expect an increase in hydrophobia in the state."

ADD LANDS TO RESERVATION.

Tracts in Virginia Purchased For Watersheds.

Washington, May 8—Approximately 93,000 acres of mountain land in Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, and West Virginia have been approved for purchase by the National Forest Reservation Commission. This will make almost 100,000 acres bought by the government up to date for the Appalachian and White Mountain Forest Reservation.

The largest group of the tracts comprises 38,00 acres in the Massanutten region in Page, Warren and Shenandoah counties, Virginia, the present purchase practically rounding out what the government needs in that section. In the Potomac purchase area, a group of thirty-two tracts, totalling 32,660 acres in Frederick and Shenandoah counties, Virginia, was aproved,about half which adjoins lands already bought. In the Nantahala purchase area, in Macon county, North Carolina, 31 tracts, containing 5,465 acres, was approved, filling out tracts previously purchased there. The only purchase in a new area was in Unicoa county, Tennessee, where control of the watersheds, it is said, will benefit the Tennessee River. The six tracts bought today contain 16,460 acres.

Money already has been apropriated sufficient for the purchase of about 1,000,000 acres of Eastern mountain land, although it is estimated that eventually the purchase needed to protect the Appalachian and White Mountain watershed will total about 5,000,000 acres.

London, May 8.—Police testimony regarding alleged inflammatory speeches by militants was given when the Bow street police court hearing of the conspiracy charges against Miss Annie Kenney, "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, Edward G. VIOLENT ATTACK ON FRIEDMANN CURE

Medical Paper Asserts That German Physician is Dishonorable.

URGING PUBLICITY.

"Cure" Branded as Piece of Commercialism" and Demand That Steps be Taken for Protection.

Washington, May 8.—Accusing Dr. Friederich Franz Friedmann, of dishonorable conduct, characterizing him as a rapacious foreigner, and his "cure" as a disgraceful piece of commercialism, the Journal of the American Medical Association, official organ of this great body of American physicians and surgeons, has called upon all American medical men to "lay the facts" with respect to Friedmann before the public through the agency of the press.

The Congres sof American Physicians nad Surgeons, representatives of the medical men of every community, is now in session in this city.

The Journal of the American Medical Association wants the physicians and surgeons to meet fire with fire, and to use a publicity campaign to offset what it alleges to be the evil effects of that conducted by Dr. Freidmann. The Journal takes up the cudgel aganist Friedmann editorially in the issue for May 3.

The announcement of the Friedman cure, was, says the Journal, "the beginnig of a most remarkable and disgraceful newspaper exploitation. This has been kept up to the present time. As one looks back, one is forced to the conclusion, that from the beginning, it was a premediatted, well arranged scheme of free advertising. The press agents of this obscure bacteriologist have certainly done their work well."

CARDINALS 3, BALLSTON 1.

Alexandria Wins in Interesting Contest From County Boys.

The most interesting game of ball that has been played on the local grounds was the one between the Cardinals and the team from Ballston, which was a pitchers battle between Cox and Bryant, the former having the shade allowing on two hits and fanning 8 men while Bryant was touched up for 5 hits and whiffed 9 men and walked one.

The Cardinals started to scoring, one run coming over the pan in the second and two in the fourth which was a earned run. Not a Ballston player saw first base for five innings but on two errors an da stolen base in the sixth the County lads pushed one run over and was never dangerous again, Cox having them completely puzzled and receiving gilt edge support from the out and in fielders.

MONDAY NIGHT'S PLAY.

Story of "The Romancers" is a Continual Sequence of Charm and Poetry

"The Romancers" translated from the French of "Les Romanesques," is considered the most delightful and charming comedy that has been written by a living playwright. It was first produced in Paris at the Comedie Francaise where it ran for a whole year. The greatest of comedians, Coquelin, played the role of the brigand adventurer Straforel, and it was because of his success in this play that the more serious play of "Cyrano de Bergerse" was written in fact the character of Straforel is the same character as "Cyrano" in this more serious play.

"The Romancers" has not been produced before in this country, mainly because an adequate translation had not been made of it. The great English actress, Mrs. Patrick Campbell, had an excellent translation made for her well known production at the Royalty Theater in London, and she gave Mr. Frank Lea Short the American rights of this translation. It is considered a most excellent one and brings out the full beauty and the charming wit of the original French.

The story of "The Romancers" is a continual sequence of charm and poetry and brilliant situation and exciting incident. It is a play which will appeal to every one whether they wish brilliant dialogue, cleverness of situation, beauty of setting or pure exciting drama combined with the most laughable comedy. It is also a play which will appeal to children as wel as to older people.

The imitation abduction with which the first act closes has been said to be the most brilliant climax of any act which has been produced in Paris for a number of years. Laughs, tears and thrills are here combined in a few moments of swift incident, and the applause which always follows is a sure proof of the brillance of the first act of this play. That the charm and interest and wit continues through the two following acts is well established.

The production of Frank Lea Short Company has been said to be even better than the original presentation of this play in Paris and the lady mangers of the Alexandria Hospital were exceedingly fortunate to secure this play for May 12th at 8 p. m.

It will be given on the Hospital grounds, and, if the weather is inclement, the presentation will be given at Armory Hall.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

KEYS GIVEN DR. SMITH.

New President of Washington-Lee University Assumes Office.

Lexington, Va., May 8.—In the presence of seventy-eight representatives of educational institutions from all sections of country, and before an audience which crowded the auditorium to its utmost capacity, Dr. Henry Louis Smith yesterday morning was inaugurated into the presidency of Washington and Lee University. Dr. Smith succeeded Dr. Denny, who went to the University of Alabama, and has been in charge of the institution during the past session the inauguration exercises being postponed until this date.

Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan, was to have been the principal speaker of the occasion, but his trip to California caused the cancellation of the engagement. Besides the inaugural address of Dr. Smith other addresses were delivered by Dr. P. P. Claxton, of Washington, United States Commissioner of Education, and Dr. George W. Denny, former president of Washington and Lee, now president of the University of Alabama.

Rev. Givens Brown, Strickler, of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, rector of the board of trustees of Washington and Lee, delivered the charge to the new president and turned over to him the keys of the noted and historical educational institution.

The inaugural procession was imposing. It was led by Dr. Strickler with President Smith, and Mr. Claxton with Dr. Denny, the trustees of the institution, delegates from other colleges and universities in academic costume in the order of the granting of charters of their institutions following. Then came the invited guests and alumni not representing institutions; the faculty of Washington and Lee, and members of the senior classes of the university.

The inaugural luncheon at the university dining hall followed the exercises, and addresses were delivered by eight or ten university presidents.

Yesterday evening President and Mrs. Smith gave a reception to the delegates and visitors at Carnegie Libarary.

On account of ill health this business was closed early this year. In 1885 he married a daughter of Henry N. Bankard, of Baltimore. He was a Mason and a vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church, Charlottesville. Interment will be in Loudon Park cemetery, Baltmore.

A PERILOUS PREDICAMENT.

Workman Holds by Hands High in Air When Scaffold Rope Fails.

Richmond, May 8.—Dangling from a rope on which they had only hand holds,, John Smith and Elijah Brown, colored, hung suspended from the eleventh story of the new Murphy's Hotel, in full sight of horror-stricken people on Broad street, a few mornings ago. They were arranging a scaffold on which several brick masons were to work when a man on the ground who had hold of one of the ropes let loose and made the horizontal flooring of the scaffold assume a perpendicular position.

Within a few inches of the heads of H. A .Green and Joseph Kirkie, two white men who were working on a scaffold at the second story, the boards which had been laid across the ladder, forming the undermost portion of the scaffold, came clattering down and struck the roof over the covered walk on Broad street with a noise that could be heard for several blocks.

For fully fifteen minutes the two men swung on the verge of eternity. Then workmen, who had obtained a hook, drew the dangling ladder and rope to the eleventh story window, and the laborers were once more safe. Smith was clinging to one of the blocks of the scaffolding rigging, while Brown had a death grip on one of the rungs of the ladder.

ATTEMPT TO DROWN CREW.

Policeman Pulls Gun on Unruly Prisoner Who Was Rocking Boat.

Richmond, May 8.—While he was bringing two men and a woman from the island at the lock near the city dock shortly after 8 o'clock Tuesday night Policeman Akers, his prisoners and a vestryman of Christ Episcopal across the canal had a narrow escape from being precipitated into the water, and it was only after the policeman had pulled his pistol, and with the serious intention of shooting, that the unruly prisoner who was rocking the boat desisted from his attempt to drown all the occupants.

Policeman Akers had received a call from the neighborhood of the island. His information had told him that a negro man, a white man and a white woman had been carousing on the island for three days, with no other shelter than the spraeding branches of a tree. Obtaining a boat from Frank Buckley, and with Buckley as the oarsman, he crossed to the island and arrested Thomas Connell, white, John Hobby, colored,and Rosa Tyler, white. The white man and the women were badly battered about the face. Connell an dthe negro fought for the woman's favor, and Connell is said to have struck the woman in the eye after the negro had beat him. Eight empty pint whisky bottles were found near the party.

On the trip across the canal Connell tried to tip over the boat. Buckley hit him over the head with a paddle, but this did not cause him to desist. He pleaded with the negro to aid him in upsetting the craft. Then Policeman Akers pulled his pistol, and, leveling it at Connell's head, told him he would kill him if he made another similar attempt.

Justice Crutchfield sent the trio to jail for ninety days each.

FIRES IN DISMAL SWAMP.

Many Reported Missing And Property Damage is Great.

Norfolk, Va., May 8.—Forest fires which have been raging for many days on both sides of Dismal Swamp broke from their confines today, despite frantic efforts of hundreds of volunteers and now menace villages in that section.

It is reported that many homes have been consumed by the flames, and in sections where the fire suddenly made its appearance many persons are reported missing. Hundreds of families have been driven from their homes. The smoke is so dense that the sun is practically obscured for a radius of fifty miles, and families living near the fire zone close their doors and windows at night, fearing the smoke will choke them while they sleep.

Flames twice ignited the State School for the Feeble-minded at Kingston, N. C., today, but volunteers rescued the inmates and saved the building.

The John L. Roper Lumber Company and the Richmond Cedar Works, both of Suffolk, Va. ,estimate their losses in timber destruction at over 100,000.

The fire has driven wild animals into the open, and they are devouring chickens and cattle belongings to farmers, while parents are in fear that they will attack their children.

RICHMOND MAN ARRESTED.

Held Springfield, Mass., For Annoying Young Girls.

Richmond, May 8.—The following was received by the Times-Dispatch from Springfield, Mass.

"In the arrest Tuesday of Benjamin F. Saunders, of Richmond, Va., said to be a young man of excellent family there, the police claim to have captured a prisoner who has been causing a reign of terror among the young women of Springfield and vicinity for the past three months. Saunders came here last January from Richmond, where he has been working as a bookkeeper. Since January 6 he has been in the employ of the Quigley Furnace Company, and has been doing well. The charge against him at police headquarters are improper conduct. Most of the alleged assaults on girls took place in street cars, although the police say that in some instances he made his acquaintance with the victims on the cars and then followed them to lonely places nearby. He was caught while annoying a prominent young woman in one of the city cars. She spoke to the man next her, who in turn went to the conductor. At this point Saunders ran and leaped from the car, but passengers gave chase, and he was arrested."

Richmond, May 8.—Saunders in a dispatch to this city denies that he was taken into custody at Springfield, Mass., for annoying girls.

UNSETTLED CONDITIONS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

The twentieth century has not dawned under conditions many desire and which it was supposed by some would be marked by tranquilty and contentment. The restive conditions of the world is becoming more pronounced daily, and the headlines of papers anouncing horrors here and there are growing more numerous daily.

In our own country red flags, bringing to mind the reign of terror in France, are conspicuously displayed, and that, too, on public buildings, as was the case in Liverpool, Ohio, aday or two ago.

Another man was ruthlessly murdered in the streets of New York yesterday—the fifth in four days. As usual, the assassin escaped.

Women are in men's boots in England, and their alleged high-handed acts are taxing Scotland Yard for all it is worth.

Anarchists have had the boldness to attempt to prevent the King of Spain from visiting the President of France, and a ploto to assassinate the former has been unearthed. Extraordinary precautions are being taken to prevent the Czar of Russia from being murdered during his coming visit to Berlin.

In addition to the unfortunate conditions referred to above, labor riots are chronic in many places throughout the country.

Discontent with governments of all sorts is growing rapidly in the world. It is a sad sign of the times.

The younger generation, which will soon be called upon to take their fathers' places, are being impregnated with the dreams of socialists and, in many cases ,the red banner of anarchy appeals more to them than the stars and stripes. Who can tell what perilous times may face the world in the near future?

PROSPERIOUS CONDITIONS. IN THE SOUTHLAND.

Returning well pleased with conditions as found in the South, Robert S. Mooney vice president of the Equitable Morgage and Trust Company of Baltimore, is back in that city from an extended trip through several Southern States.

"The South is undergoing a wonderful development," says Mr. Mooney. Splendid buildings are bing erected in many of the leading cities of the South, and there are unmistakable evidences of rapid expansion in other lines.

"Business seems to be excellent, and there is a good demand for money. A feeling of optimism prevails all over the South. The people have been enjoyng excellent times and they do not fear for the future. They believe that their prosperity rests on a sure foundation."

The rapid development of the Southern country is attracting the attention of the world. Some of the unfortunate conditions which are chronic in other sections o fthe country are almost unknown south of Mason and Dixon's line. It is seldom that serious labor troubles occur in this part of the United States, the people generally realizing the blessings they enjoy and mingle cheerfully and pleasantly with one another.

There is great contrast to conditions nearly half a century ago, when the men of the south returned to devastated homes and blackened chimneys, all that was left of their former abodes. They went to work with a will and demonstrated their manhood by rapidly rising superior to their difficulties. They are now reaping the legitimate fruits of their labors.

Negroes were emacipated, their fields trodden down and in some places conditions which General Sheridan declared he would bring about were in evidence—crows might have carried their rations over the ruins of what were once smiling homes.

Blessings often come in disguise. It was so in south. Better homes have succeeded those destroyed, finer and more lucrative crops are raised annually, and negroes, formerly the sine qua non of plantation life, in many cases lag superflus on the stage.

BENEFITTING THE PEOPLE.

Typewriter manufacturers in their protest against the removal of the 30 per cent duty, which the Underwood bill does remove, make an astounding admission.

They say that if the existing duty is taken off "the American market will soon be flooded with cheap machines from Germany and England."

Well, now, wouldn't that be great. In that event, every man of moderate means in the land could own an individual typewriter without mortgaging his birthright to pay for it.

And so with everything else under our monopoly tariff.

The removal of the iniquitous import tax of thirty per cent might possibly knock out the typewriter monopoly, but that, and other knockouts like it, are just what the people of this county have been compelled to asquiesce in by the inexoroble and inhuman exploitations of the protected interests, which cannot get the idea into their heads that the Underwood tariff reduction bill is based on the scientific purpose to benefit the masses of the people of the country, even if the monopolists, having bled the people to the bone, will have now either to play fair or pull up stakes.

A similar argument is being attempted to be made by certain newspapers as to the effect of the income tax, which one of them says "will work a hardship upon decent citizens of large means."

The Baltimore Sun answers this very neatly:

"The high tariff is the worst sort of tax, because it is wasteful, costly and productive of great incidental evils. The poor man pays an utterly disproportionate part of it, because the tax applies to everything he eats and drinks and wears.

"If some one must be discriminated against, should it not be the rich man rather than the poor man? Particularly as the rich man can pay the tax and not miss it."

THE POSTMAN.

The postman is a busy guy,
Three times a day he saunters by
And carries letters early noon and late,
Sometimes his coming makes us smile
And other times we'd run a mile
And hide, if we could but escape our fate.

He brings us divers kinds of mail,
In rain or shine he does not fail,
But whistles as he goes upon his way,
For what cares he, the happy wight,
He doesn't lose his sleep at night
Because of what he's brought us through the day.

He brings us news of friends of old
The ones who value us as gold,
And these are gifts we're grateful to receive,
He brings us word of those we love,
Who ne'er forget, wher'er they rove,
The ones whom we can always trust and believe.

He brings us notes from sweethearts true
On scented paper, pink and blue,
That set our hearts afire with happiness,
But then, alas, he brings us bills
That fill ous lives with woes and ills
And give us hours of grief and bitterness.

But just the same, the postman's trade
Brings more of sunshine than of shade,
His work is typical of human life,
For, while we feel the sting of fate,
Our joys are truly far more great,
And days of peace outnumber those of strife.

You can easily discover the natural-born pessimists in a community at this season of the year. They are always rooting against the home team.

We are afraid the boys are losing their spirit. We haven't heard a single word about the fight for the postmastership in a month.

Back in the box goes the old felt hat,
We'll need him when fall winds blow,
Meanwhile we'll shine up the last year's straw,
Then out for a stroll we'll go.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Directors of Alexandria National Bank Pass Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of the Late John A. Marshall.

At a meeting today of the Board of Directors of the Alexandria National Bank, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, by the Board of Directors of the Alexandria National Bank in regular meeting assembled on May 8, 1913:

1.That we have heard with the profoundest sorrow of the death of John A. Marshall, one of the vice-presidents and directors of this bank;

2.—That we tender to each member of his family our tenderest sympathy in their bereavement, and irreparable loss;

3.—That we bear testimony to the fact that John A. Marshall was one of the founders of the Alexandria National Bank, and since its foundation to the day of his lamented death, it never had a more loyal and devoted friend, and supporter, nor one who more rejoiced in its success and prosperity, that as director, vice-president and depositor, he ever labored faithfully and earnestly to advance, in every way, in his power, its highest and best interests;

4.—That in all the relations of life John A. Marshall proved himself to be a man of remarkable strength and power. By his own unaided exertions, through industry, economy and ability he accumulated a large fortune, mainly in the development of the natural resources of Northern Virginia, and that amid all his accumulations there was not a dishonest dollar, nor one saddened with a widow's tears nor an orphan's cry.

He was not given to an ostentatious display of charity, but no worthy object of need ever failed of a response from him, and unknown to the public generally, only his intimate friends knew how many worthy and deserving, though poor persons received assistance from him, and generally without solicitation of their part. And the crowning quality of John A. Marshall's life, and the cleverest and truest test of his character and mind and heart was that the friends and relatons of his youth, who had not prospered in life's struggles as he had, yet to the end remained his warmest friends and admirers, and many of his happiest moments were enjoyed in entertaining them in his beautiful home, surrounded by the luxuries, which wealth afford, and in their memory they will ever treasure him as a loyal friend, whom prosperity and success had not tainted with pride and arrogance.

In his family John A. Marshall was a devoted and loving husband and father, and in the sacred precincts of home surrounded by mother, wife children, and grandchildren he enjoyed true happiness, and in the love which each bore for him, as a result of his tenderness and care for them, proved that those, who knew him best loved him best. May that happy family circle, may that happy home, which is a foretaste of heaven, be reunited in the regions beyond human ken, never to be broken!

5.—That in the death of John A. Marshall the City of Alexandria has lost a most valuable and public spirited citizen, and one who was ever interested in every enterprise that tended to her development and prosperity.

6.—That in the death of John A. Marshall each of the directors, officers and employees of this bank have lost a personal friend, whom we sincerely lament and mourn, and whose genial presence in the bank with happy and kind words of greeting and wise counsel we sorely miss;

7.—That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of Mr. John A. Marshall and that they be spread on our records, and published in the Alexandria Gazette, and the Alexandria Daily News, as a lasting memorial to his memory, and as a further mark of honor to his memory, that the Alexandria National Bank building be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days.

A copy teste.

"Nearly all those Wagons and Buggies are Studebakers

Every year over one hundred thousand Studebaker vehicles are sold.

This tells you what the farmers of the country think of the Studebaker wagons.

This appreciation has been constantly growing for sixty years.

This appreciation has been earned by the determination of Studebaker to produce an honestly built wagon that will do a full day's work and keep on doing it, and not to build a cheap one.

The man who buys the Studebaker gets all the improvements gained by the experience of two generations of wagon builders.

ARRESTED WRONG MAN.

Detective Who Took Bowen in Custody is Dismissed.

Houston, Tex., May 8.—Paul P. Bowen was released late today. Chief of Detective Peyton, of the local force, who was instrumental in the arrest, was relieved from duty with the department, Chief of Police Davidson holding that he had exceeded his authority.

The actions of the man, observed by a woman boarder at the hotel where he was stopping, and the story she told the police, caused his arrest. Bowen was held on suspicion, the charge being based on telegrams from Atlanta, Ga., police, saying Bowen is wanted in connection with the finding of the murdered body of Mary Phagan, in an Atlanta pencil factory.

From Bowen's trunk the police obtained a woman's vest, which they said was blood stained, copies of Atlanta newspapers and a photograph which they identified as that of the murdered girl, Mary Phagan. This identification was made today by comparing the photograph with Atlanta papers. The woman informant gave the name as Mrs. A. Blanchette. She says her attention was attracted by hearing a man sobbing in the adjoining room at her hotel and that by standing on a chair she looked through a transom at Bowen while he opened his trunk. She told the police that his actions had aroused her suspicions. Acting on her information they arrested Bowen.

Bowen said he had been a bookkeeper and stenographer and claimed that he worked in Atlanta, Ga., for the Morrow Transfer Company. He gave his home address as 108 Ivy street that city. He denied knowing anything about the pencil factory, any persons connected with, or employed in the factory. He said he did not know the Phagan girl. His trunk contained dozens of pictures of young ladies, singly and in groups. Letters from several young women are among his effects.

He positively declined to discuss the bloody vest, papers, letters, or photographs, maintaining silence when asked about him.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

At yesterday's session of the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New Jersey, at Atlantic City, a canon was adopted providing that married ministers in new parishes should be paid an annual salary of $1,200 and unmarried ones, $1,000 a year. It is said that the action of the New Jersey diocese will become an issue throughout the church, which will have for its aim "higher pay."

The action of the Chemung Presbytery at Elmira, N. Y., recently in taking under its care Miss Rachel G. Brooks, candidate for the ministry, is declared unique in the Continent, a weekly periodical of the Presbyterian church. It was only a year ago that the general assembly of the church voted against the ordination of women. Miss Brooks was graduated from Elmira College and desires to preach in rural communities which are financially unable to support a regular pastor.

At a Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court House of the said city, on Tuesday, May 6th, 1913. Present, Hon. J. B. T. Thornton, Judge.

Marion H. Pender, Complainant,

Vs

Mary Pender, Defendant.

Upon the application of complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, and it appearing to the Court that process has been issued and returned by the Sergeant of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, showing the defendant not being found within the jurisdiction of this Court,, the Court, on this 6th day of May, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree absolutely divorcing the complainant, Marion H. Pender, from the defendant, Mary Pender, on the ground of adultery on the part of said defendant and for general relief, and an affidavit having been filed that the defendant, Mary Pender, is a non-resident of the state of Virginia, it is ordered that she do appear here within fifteen days after due publication of said order of publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of the Circuit Court of said city, on or before the next succeeding Rule Day after this order is entered; and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant at Crockett, Houston county, Texas, her last known place of address.

Girls in Rescue Homes.

One thousand girls a year come to the local Salvation Army Rescue and Maternity Home, and of the children born there 85 per cent. are illegitimate, according to the testimony of Miss Anna Hanstin, superintendent, before the legislative investigation committee Friday. "We have taken care of all kinds of girls—drug fiends, drunkards, and women of the underworld, but the last predominate," said Miss Hanstin. "The only promise we exact from applicants is that they will nurse their own babies and take them with them when they leave. We keep track of them where we can after they leave us, but many are foreigners who return to Europe."

MRS. LONGSTREET LOSES.

Confederate General's Widow Fails to Hold Her Postoffice.

Washington, May 8.—Mrs. Helen Longstreet, widow of the famous Confederate general, has lost her fight for reappointment as postmistress of Gainesville, Ga. Mrs. H. J. Hamm was nominated to the office after President Wilson had consulted the Georgia senators.

It was learned that Postmaster General Burleson's reports of condition of the postoffice over which Mrs. Longstreet presided alleged that the office was poorly managed.

Much interest had been manifested in the appointment, and Mrs. Longstreet's friends had flooded the White House with telegrams and petitions in her behalf. An appeal, setting out her fears that influences were working against her appointment or her confirmation, was sent to the Senate today by Mrs. Longstreet.

Pull Down Red Flag.

Controversy between the patriotic societies of East Liverpool, Ohio, and the socialist organization over whether the socialists should fly a red flag from their headquarters reached a crisis yesterday morning when Mayor R. J. Marshal ordered the fire department to remove the offending flag. It was taken down amid the cheres of a great crowd, but within half an hour another red flag was flying from the same staff. Several weeks ago the socialists announced that as the red flag was not the flag of any country, there was no law against it. Public sentiment was aroused, and early this week two young men tore down the flag. It was replaced with another, which was burned Tuesday night. Another red flag was flying when persons appeared on the streets yesterday morning, and it, too, was torn down and burned. Then the socialists threw another flag to the breeze, and this one, to prevent further disorder, the mayor ordered removed.

Leaders of the socialists appealed to Sheriff Samuel Crawford to protect their flag from the police. No attempt was made to interfere further with the emblem.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Richmond Man Arrested in Philadelphia Was Living Honest Life.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 8.—Arthur Lee, who has been working at Baldwins for the last year, was routed out of bed early yesterday by detectives and told that he was under arrest as a fatigive from Richmond, Virginia.

The detectives say Lee is accused of having obtained large sums of money by forgery. Lee is alleged to have told a pathetic story of having worked hard saved his money and of his hope that his trouble would blow over and that he would be able to go back to Richmond, reclaim his wife and children and take them away to make a fresh start in some other city. The detectives claim they were able to corroborate his story, as they have been watching him for some time and say that he has borne a good reputation.

Richmond, Va., May 8.—Arthur Lee, under arrest in Philadelphia, is wanted here on a charge of forging the name of M. C. Riggs and Maggie Riggs, on orders to L. C. Younger for $177.81. The alleged offense was committed February 5, 1912, since which time a search has been in progress for Lee. Detective Sergeant Kellum departed last night with requisition papers for Lee.

BARTENDER SHOT.

Victim Had Refused to Sell a Drink to Assailant Who Was Drunk.

Harrisonburg, Va., May 8.—C. C. Kite, unmarried man, about 27 years old, was shot and seriously wounded in a Shenandoah City saloon Tuesday night by Jno. Lucas, a married man, about 40 years old, who became incensed because Kite refused to sell him a drink of whiskey. Immediately after the shooting, Henry Kite, father of the wounded man, struck Lucas a blow in the face, knocking him down.

Young Kite noticed that Lucas has evidentliy been drinking and for that reason refused him another drink. Becoming angered, Lucas left the saloon, went up stairs, and in a little while returned with a pistol and opened fire on Kite. Three shots were fired, but only one took effect. The bullet entered Kite's body on the left side some distance above the heart, lodging in the left shoulder blade.
